

WIFE BEATER ARRESTED.

Thought He Could Make Amends for Past Sins.

Kanui, a native from the vicinity of Iwilei, was brought to the police station late Saturday night for disturbing the peace and quiet of the neighborhood from which he has the honor to hail. It seems Kanui conceived the idea that he could make amends for all his past sins by beating his wife with a club. Having satisfied his mind as to this, he began operations and continued them at intervals for two or three hours. The attention of a mounted patrolman was called to the actions of the native by a boy living in the neighborhood. When the officer arrived, Kanui had nothing on but a pair of torn trousers. He had evidently set about the task of beating his wife in a business-like manner. The poor woman was crouching in a corner completely cowed and with a face that bore unmistakable signs of having been struck with some blunt instrument. At the police station some one offered the suggestion that the man was drunk, which was unmistakably the case. Kanui turned himself toward the speaker as best he could and replied in excellent English, "No sir, I am not drunk. It is true I cannot stand up as well as I would like to, but I am really not drunk." The warning voice of Turnkey Evans announced that it was bed time for Kanui, and the native disappeared from the scene.

MULLET AND SHARK.

Trick Played on an Unsuspecting Native Sunday.

One of the natives employed on the custom house force had an unpleasant experience Sunday morning. He had gone to the fishmarket on horseback and bought two fine mullet for breakfast. Spying a friend standing near by, he asked if he would not have the fish wrapped up in paper for him. This was acquiesced in. The friend saw that two small sharks were substituted for the mullet, and took possession of the fish. The unsuspecting native left his bundle at the custom house with a boy living in the same house with him. A little later the friend arrived with the mullet and told the boy he had no use for the fish and that he had better take it home with the other bundle. Naturally, the boy kept the gift and the employee of the custom house got the sharks. The man is still wondering how mullet could change into shark in so short a time and under such circumstances.

ELECTRIC WORK BOOMING.

Cheap Figures Furnished for Wiring and Lighting Residences.

There is great activity about the Hawaiian Electric Company's premises. Gangs of men are busily engaged in constructing the new ice and cold storage plant, which, it is expected, will be completed early in December.

Manager Hoffman and a corps of efficient workmen have all they can do for some time to come wiring houses and placing new lights. Since Mr. Hoffman became manager of the company great improvements have been made in many respects. He has demonstrated that electricity is the best and cheapest light for residences, business houses, offices, etc., and under his bustling supervision much new business has come to the company in work of the kind mentioned.

A great many people have been under the impression that electric lighting was too expensive for homes, but when figures were furnished by Manager Hoffman, they were amazed at the cheap rate which the work could be done.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Miss Edith Hartwell and A. W. Carter Husband and Wife.

Miss Edith Hartwell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Hartwell, was married to Alfred W. Carter at the home of the bride's parents, 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Rev. H. H. Parker performed the ceremony, which was attended by none but the immediate family, this being due to the indisposition of Mrs. Hartwell. Miss Madeline Hartwell acted as maid of honor and A. M. Brown as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Carter are spending their honeymoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Carter, Waikiki.

The presents received were articles of good taste and calculated to be of use. The Mounted Reserve, of which Mr. Carter is captain, presented the newly married couple with a beautiful lamp and stand.

Hoodlums Dispersed.

While raiding a Chinese shop on King street Saturday morning a certain captain of the police was forced to resort to some plan of getting a gang of inquisitive hoodlums and other persons away from the entrance. The officer saw it would be useless to attempt to disperse them without aid, as they were over a hundred in number. He made up his mind to take a decisive step, and rushing for a bucket of water, poured the whole contents upon the surprised gang, who scampered in all directions. It is said there were some very prominent persons in the crowd that felt a few stray drops of water. The plan resorted to by the captain was very effective, for the gang failed to turn up afterward.

If a man died in debt, his relations must pay that debt, or be beaten two or three times a month on the shin."—Mrs. Miln's Quaint Korea.

Nonogenarian Twins.

A Decatur, Ind., special says: At Geneva, a small town in the oil region of this country, recently occurred the annual reunion of John and Richard McGriff, two of the oldest twins in the United States. Over 300 persons were present to assist them in celebrating their 91st birthday. Both are in excellent health, and neither of them ever wore glasses or walked with a cane.

CREOLE is the gamest, fastest and best bred stallion that has ever been imported into the Hawaiian Islands. He reduced his record of 2:20 to 2:18 in Petaluma, Cal., August 24, 1894, distancing his whole field in the first heat; then again to 2:15 in Stockton, Cal., September 23, 1894, winning the first heat in 2:15 fourth heat in 2:15, and fifth heat in 2:19, proving that he is a remarkably game as well as a speedy race horse. ("Creole by Prompter out of Grace by Buccaneer shows that he is capable of getting a mark of 2:10 and is one of the gamest stallions seen this year, and besides being game, is one of the best formed, and remarkably intelligent."—Breeder and Sportsman, Sept. 25, 1894.)
